Business Ditectory.

Business Cards not exceeding three lines, inser ted under this head, at $1 per annum. Persons advertising in the "Democrat" by the year, will be entitled to a Card in the Business Directory, without additional charge.

Marshall County Democrat JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

We have on hand an extensive assortment of JOB TYPE, And are prepared to execute

Of every description and quality, such as PAMPHLETS, CIRCULARS. BUSINESS CARDS, HANDBILLS, BLANK DEEDS &

LABELS, MORTGAGES; CATALOGUES, And in short, Blanks of every variety and description, on the shortest notice, & on reasonable terms TOLYMOUTH BANNER, BY W. J. BURNS,

DROWNLEE & SI Dry Goods and G Michigan street,.... Goods and Groceries, con

PALMER, DEALER IN D Groceries, south corner La Pe

N. Dry Goods & Groceries, Brick Store Mi TOHN COUGLE, DEALER IN DRY C • J and Groceries, corner of Michigan

TRS. DUNHAM, MIL Maker,.... DROWN & BAY Stoves, Tinware, &

H. R. PERSHIN DAM VINNEDGE, THE A and Retail Grocer, ..... Plymonta, W. L. PIATT, MANUFACTURER OF Cabinet Ware, ...... Plymouth, Ind.

CLUYTER & FRANCIS, HOUSE CARPEN-W. SMITH, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, West side Michigan st., Plymouth, Incl.

ELLIOTT & Co., MANUFACTURERS OF Wagons, Carriages & Plows, Plymouth, Ind. TOLLINS & NICHOLS, MANUFACTUL ers of Sash &c......Plymouth, h

DENJ. BENTS, BLACKSMITH, K. BRIGGS, BLACKSMITH, Plymonth, Ind.

COWARDS HOTEL, BY W.C. EDWARD C. CAPRON, ATTORNEY

selor at Law,.... CHAS. H. REEVE, ATT A Notary Public .... TORACE CORBIN, AL

SAML. B. CORBA

BROWN,

THEO. A. LEMON, GEON & Druggist.... DUFUS BROWN, PHYSI

GEON,..... S. HIGGINBOTHAM, PHYS. GEON,.....

W. BENNET, PHY. · GEON. LINGER & BRO. DE.L

TENRY PIERCE, DEA thing & Furnishing Goods, P USTIN FULLER, MA

And dealer in Flour . . TENRY M. LOGAN & Lumber, &c.... TOSEPH POTTER, SAD

MERICAN HOUSE, G. A Son, Proprietors.....

DARBERING AND HAIRDRES Alfred Billows, ..... Plymen MITCHELL & WILCOX, MANU

TESTERVELT & HEWIT, DE in Dry Goods & Groceries, Plymout S. CLEAVELAND, DEALER IN T. Goods, Hardware, etc., . Plymouth H. CASE, JUSTICE OF TH

A. HUGUS ATTORNEY SALOON, BY S. EDWARDS

DR. J. J. VINALL,

HUME, HASNESS MAR

BLANK DEEDS AND MO

We now have a good supply of B Mortgages, of an approved formirst style of the art, on fine white foli or sale at one dollar per quire, or fiv

ALSO, BLANK d printed to slanks printed

Selected Poetry.

GRUMBLERS.

Says one your subjects are too grave-Too much morality you have-Too much about religion; Give me some witch or wizzard tales, With slip-shod ghosts with fins and scales, Or feathers like a pigeon.

I love to read, another cries, Those monstrous, fashionable lies-In other words those novels, Composed of kings and queens and lords, Of border-wars and Gothic hords, That used to live in hovels.

No-no, cries one, we've had enough Of such confouned love-sick stuff, To craze the fair creation; Give us some recent foreign news, Of Russians, Turks, the Greeks and Jews, Or any other nation.

Another cries, I want more fun, A witty anecdote or pun, A rebus or a riddle; Some long for missionary news, me of worldly carnal views, hear a fiddle.

elightful, mixed with such kind, beauty and benificence combin'd. unperceived, so softening into shade; so forming an harmomous whole, s they still succeed, they ravish still.' ent is emphatically true: soper study of mankind is man."

lition, physiology, sensibiliti s, af- pers.

important chapter in Great Natures Text tury and a quarter more, the car makes the profoundest intellect, and enlighten the Book. To contemplate only the depend- surface of the sun, and its passenger, that feeblest faculties. Its promises enliven ence of the human family reciprocally on started an infant, is deposited a handfull of and solace every condition of life. If in each other. Foreign hands manufacture dust! But the earth upon which we jour- prosperity, it prompts to benevolence and for us broad-cloths, silks, fine linens, beau- ney, traverses more than six times this dis- mercy, and moderate confidence in wealth. tiful porcelains and less expensive wares. tance in a single year. So that if a car had If in adversity, it administers consolations Other hands, and other climes, at a dis- started at the birth of Christ to run around of joy and gladness, not only by the assur- concluded, with your permission, to inflict ticed upon by political desingers. When tance of half round the world, gather for the orbit of the earth, it could not yet have ance of divine protection, but also by the them upon the readers of the Democrat .- the truth is once fully presented them, and us the fragrant spices, teas, coffee and aro- accomplished a single circuit; though more prospect that all the sorrows and sufferings And should any find fault with them, to the deception exposed, they will rebel. That matic gums. Chemists of another language than the lifetime of two Methuselahs! In of every condition, whether in prosperity claborate our most useful medicines; and every science, to which we have adverted, or oppression, are but briefs and thorns we raise bread for those who live and die man is interested from the constitution of that beset a short and narrow path to endignorant of our individual existence. How his nature. Let us proceed to consider oth- less rest. Its voice is a voice of power .connected are the works of Creation. Over er relations. Man, is a solitary individual, Often its denunciations flashing upon the the wide spread Zones and spacious conti- is comparatively weak and inefficient, and conscience deter the half-formed purpose observation that we derive our principal like candid men, now that they have seen nents are found the fields of vegetable life unable to perform those vast achievments, from ripening into execution, and holds and the abode of animated nature. So that that he can in connection with his fellow man back from deeds of darkness and mind is that of scientific Botany. Every give impulse and stimulus to effective act- sult in an "Exceeding great and eternal lest flowers with which nature decks and man can speak advisedly respecting the that hang over the valley of death, with is variegates her verdant lawns, is arranged adoption or rejection of any great measure celes ial colors, and unvails to cheer faith in its appropriate place in the orders, gene- of State policy, if ignorant of its tendencies in its last efforts, the blushing tints of the made by the forest, fruits, grains, grapes, direction to nations through long periods with all the nice dependencies of the mateflowers, seeds, leaves, roots, barks and of time; still "There's a divinity that rial world. To know the result of politic us, either directly or indirectly, to hu- shapes the ends" and overrules all Events. al combinations, we must travel the rounds ulty of observation, it is remarkable how into a K. N. lodge. As a matter of course, wants. And what gorgeousness is Corruption engenders disease in a body of history. And to comprehend our mor- many are comparatively destitute of it, or very many, who had looked upon him as every mind. To understand the from this source is: oppression never pros- course. k of an all-wise Creator. To develop instructions to enlighten and guide the at. acorn to the lofty oak, or the peeping gem Being, we meet new scenes of wonger and closed in details. Man can here be studied of small influences. An influence of perniniration at every step, in the diverse in his personal, social and practical action. cious tendency may, like leaven, work its hs, habits, and instincts of subordinate As a study for American youth its import. way through whole masses of mankind, tion. The bird builds its nest, rears ance can scarcely be over extinuated. Use. and imbitter even the existence of future ung, and follows the summer with ful as the natural sciences are, to which nations; while an influence of a contrary et carols to the warm and sunny reference has just been made, still, to know character may be instrumental in promot-The bee, that practical little chem- the history of nations is perhaps more nec- ing the happiness of unborn generations. gates the choicest sweets, and essary for a citizen of these United States; We are influencing and training those to winter supply in cells, that vie especially those nations who have acted out whem all the wonders of this age will be Iders nicest art. Chemistry has their parts to the closing scene on the given as a heritage. The children of to-day and affords a fund of scientific great stage of the world. In this country, are the men and women of to-morrow .nces that everywhere meet trator of law. But a man not only holds re- rection to parents and teachers. To the s. Although it is com- ly apprehended. Man's moral relations to ures to bequeath as Americans. Let us not the very emblem of fit- his Creator, or to his fellow man are peragges of temperature, feetly taught only in the Book of Books- prospects of humanity in a whole Hemis- That the press has always been true to fastens him to Plymouth. Certainly, at victim of imbruting superscition or vile govern the idolatry religiously; that his civil and remoisture ligious freedom depends upon his living in . in form, and endusing in constitution, without the genial influence of Solar origin; of the city and satisfy herself on the slave's jointed notes of cursory observation. the blossoms and sweet spices of the trop- very quiet manner eloped.

int were to take passage for his connections with the present world. Thave passed beyond the Moon. The Book of books reveals this, and unhoves the car-year after year folds the principles of Divine government, the infant becomes a chi.d-a and proffers to the short lived sons and -a man-onward, onward still rush-daughters of fellow man, unending life in car, the man's locks grow gray, turn the world to come. It not only gives a hiswhite, the infant becomes decrepit tory of the past in unequaled narratives, but unseals the future of human destiny. Such that the enemy has been subdued; and though the ene age; the car nears the morning star but unseals the future of human destiny. glorious disc expands magnificently It comes filled with knowledge to which all re the longing sight of the anxious the penetration of philosophy could never century has transpired, and attain, that innate love of wisdom in man dies 200,000 miles this side may be fully gratified, as well as fraught a century and a quarter more with instructions adapted to the capacities ings and Republicans in Milwankie, ran for October next. One of the acutest polyond the firery orb of Mercu. of the millions treading the humblest path- Jessee Epps, a big nigger, for Mayor. He iticians of our state, and a man thoroughly Rubies and babies are the emblement can paint such beauties of coloring and if there be a lack of regulative power elation. Those who best understand all a lyantages. to throw it off, death is the inevitable re- these relations; and best conform to the essult. The eternal laws of right and wrong tablished order of things, whether in an incan not be violated by the mightiest ag- dividual or social capacity, must necessari- two classes of persons, viz: the observer enough to read the judgment of God upon ize that all evil and suffering, including dge. So important that the po- pressed and broke in pieces the nations; circling planets in their several pathways down, and her high gates burned with fire. the wonderful developments of vegetable poor to take a paper." "HYSELF" was placed over the Rome vanquished and robbed whole na- and animal physiology results from definite Editors are a class of people, who, by a of the "Reign of Terror." This letter is admits of ontive to one of the tri-

A Romantic Miss.

-Petersburg Express. end of 363 years, or a con- way of life. Its teachings exercise the received their entire vote; 153, all told acquainted with the public mind, calculates, love especially the habits.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 24th.

Mr. EDITOR:-Having in my random for the Democratic nominee for President. peregrinations and observations picked up The fact is simply this: Manking, though a few rough notes upon men and things, I liable to be mislead, cannot always be practhose I would say, with the author once of a is the case now. No doubt many honest certain book, "that they are the very ones, minds, alarmed by the hue and cry of Newho, I had not intended, should read them." braskaism and Popedom, severed from the notions of men and things. We may these imaginary dangers dissipated, and as fast as we turn the leaves of the book man. Hence, social and political compacts death. It teaches that nothing compromisof nature, new lessons demand our atten- have been performed. History is the science es and endangers our eternal welfare, but doomsday," and unless we reduce these to exposed, they return with outstretched arms tion and research. How endless the vari- that teaches us how political organizations iniquity and transgression; and that all the some form of practical life, we will be some- to that political rock, which, amid all the ety of the vegetable kingdom; and what a have originated, been sustained, and over- ills that flesh is heir to are but light afflic- thing like the ancient Knight, who, after lashings of wind-tossed waves, has remainsubject to delight and improve the human thrown. Hence, to discipline the mind, and tions which, if submissively endured, reobject, from the wide-branching oak, or ion, history ranks among important studies. weight of glory." Its still, small voice wind, with no other result than a loss of as did the father his prodigal son towering cedar, that stands the pride of From history we learn what conduces to whispers peace to the dying child of God, physical strength, went away despairing, I have before me a letter from an emithe forest, and braves the tempest's rage the stability of governments, and what and directs the glazing eye to the radiant and hung himself. Now I would not be nent lawyer and a leading politician in a through revolving centuries, to the humb- causes hasten their dissolution. No States- bow of hope that spins the black clouds understood as intimating that all theorists neighboring county, which, dil space perwill eventually hang themselves, when they mit, I should like to lay b fore my readers. shall fail to find a realization of their dreams In it he sets forth his political experience ra, and species of botanical classification. as aught by the experience of past confed- morn that "dawns on the night of the grave." in practical life; neither will I aver, on the for the past ten years. He had always How interesting the knowledge of what is erations. Men may frame constitutions and Then to read and understand the book of other hand, that they ought not to, as a du- been an "Old Line" Democrat, but in the so beneficial. What contributions are organic laws that will give character and nature fully, we must acquaint ourselves by they owe to themselves and to society. Summer of '54, during what might be termayed in the floral system. No pen or politic as surely as in the animal frame, al relations, we must have resource to rev- more truly, how few avail themselves of its orthodox on political matters, followed his gregation of human power with impunity. It be most happy. We shall more sensibly and the non-observer: the one is always sagacity, was not long in detecting, beneath And though no single life time is long feel the importance of this, when we real-well supplied with newspapers, of which the gauze which overlaid it, the real deorder, the subject of animated the transactions of cotemporaries, yet the death itself, result from infringing the Dins, in all its interesting details, records of past ages lay open the decisions vine arrangements of Creation. And let er is not only destitute of these, but of ev-Creation's Lord Vicegerent, of heaven, and announce its verdict in the us remark still further, that every single crything else with which he may cultivate with it. In the present letter he has set beast, birds, fish, insect' to the dreadful catastrophies that it has visited individual and every separate thing has its and enlighten his mind; and in palliation forth his reasons for doing so, and has givof existence. First in this, is upon national transgressions. Babylon op- influence. The Certral Suns hold their for his cuipable ignorance, offers that stebut long ago her broad walls were broken of revolution by attractive influence. All rectyped, miserly excuse—"that he is too est political designs, which have come to ancient city in letters of gold, to tions. But retribution came at last, when influences. So in human connections, each wise dispensation of society, are set apart but the representative sentiments of thouthe importance of this important ill-gotten treasures. One truth taught or woe on those with whom he has interand their papers are the public registers in been of a similar character. It may be almost imperceptible, yet its which they record their observations. By Here, as in most of the northern states, and mental and moral powers and Let youth then learn those lessons taught results may be immense. It is the still in this means all classes of society are put in Black-Republicanism and Know No hingsilities of man, is to become acquaint- by the recorded experience of the past .- fluence of nature in its distilling dews and immediate communication with the busy ism are united, and hence the later order i.ha "fearfully and wonderfully made" The history of 6000 years is fraught with silent sunshine, that changes the tiny world—he, who never wanders beyond the receives, with rather a woeful countenance, faculties, physical, intellectual and mor-is the very object of all correct of a is the very object of all correct educa- piness. The results of ambition, individu- way, to the towering cedar that crowns less than he who journeys to every land. Pleasure, their national nominee for Presial or socical, the end of unrestrained ab. the heights of Lebanon. No uncreated There is no single source to which society dent. Descending the gradations of the scale solution or reckless demagogueism are dis- mind can calculate the extent and results is indebted in so many ways as to the

The Poet has truly said-

"But mightiest of the mighty means, On which the arm of progress leans, Man's noblest mission to advance, His woes assuage, his weal enhance, His rights enforce, his wrongs redress,— Mightiest of the mighty is the press."

lion. Every combination is lations to the external world, and to his rising generation, we shall soon transmit our country with the blood of sterling paths free. ortions of exactest weight fellow man; there is another class of rela-Our vital breath is a com- tions still that transcend both, not only religion, let us realize then our responsi- trusted, in a great measure, to the public little city of P-was especially gratifying ystal beverage we quaff is a from the consideration that they effect his pousands of curious combines may be effected, by a destiny. These may be termed his moral of the consideration that they effect his bilities, and act well our parts that our free press. And so long as that potent engine institutions and religious blessings may be shall continue to impart a healthy, and liberage we quaff is a press. And so long as that potent engine institutions and religious blessings may be effected, by a destiny. These may be termed his moral of the consideration that they effect his press. And so long as that potent engine institutions and religious blessings may be effected, by a destiny. These may be termed his moral of the consideration that they effect his press. And so long as that potent engine institutions and religious blessings may be effected, by a destiny. These may be termed his moral of the consideration that they effect his press. And so long as that potent engine institutions and religious blessings may be effected, by a destiny. These may be termed his moral of the consideration that they effect his press. And so long as that potent engine institutions and religious regard to me, who feel a sort of religious regard for that "home of my youth." I have a pressure that the consideration that they effect his pressure that the consideration that they effect his pressure that the consideration that they effect his pressure that the consideration that they effect his pressure that affinities of natural sim- relations. Past history shows that the light hour of human history. Let us diffuse eral spirit to the people, and shall denounce holds an important place in my affections. the utmost utility to man. of nature is insufficient to teach these. The the means of mental and moral culture that with unsparing severity all disunionists. I have great faith in that common observathe great laboratory of Sun of Revelation must beam in uncloud. our children may know the worth of their se tional partisans, "Ster-chamber" con-I snow, exhibits another ed splender upon the mind, if they are ful- inheritance; for none ever had such treas- spirators, and other consanguinous cabals, been dipped in Yellow River can never af-tion, from the mild- the Bible. It contains a system of morals phere. Nations never stand still. They her trusts, I will not aver. She has often, least, I feel a common interest in its growth perfectly adopted to our wants. Earth's must either advance or retrograde. Our in "these latter days," leagued with base and prosperity, which I hope hereaf er to past and present history too, clearly, fully on, that "Sweeps of destruction."

past and present history too, clearly, fully and narrow prejudices, which evils it should be her chiefest province to eradicate. Such substantial writers. I need has dly tell you, for a revelation to guide and direct him, easily f destruction," becomes the serf of despotism, or the slave of the world; or become moralized and facts are portentous indications for our naby laws as fix- of oppression, politically; as well as the more oppressive; and fall to rise no more. tional prosperity and happiness.—But visitor to my studio. to long as i. shall be whither am I wandering? I did not de- conducted with the manly and generous A young lady of respectable connections sign, in setting out, to write a dissertation spirit that it is, -- so long as its editorials dew and the vivifying radiance of celestial light, and in Philadelphia, who had probably been on the "influence of the press," or any are written, and selections made, with the light- that we might as well expect vegetation to reading some of the late tovels of Southern other general subject: I must, therefore, such scrupulous reference to a sound lightgerminate, develop leaves, flowers and life, became determined very suddenly, a check up these digressions, and fall in with rary taste, and the practical wants of the obedient fruits; or the animal to become symmetrical few weeks ago, to leave the narrow limits my original intent of giving you a few dispeople, and, above all, so long as it shall fullest sense, unblest by the enlivening villages. She clothed herself in man's atbeams of the Sun of Righteousness. In- tire, in a fashionable suit of broadcloth, tion, which the politics of our state is undeed we might as consistently search for took some change in her pocket, and in a dergoing. In the fall of '54, through the them a handsome support. hr vision -- ic amil polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows, as for true freedom she arrived in the city one day last polar snows. amplitudes, the celestial the celestial direful infidelity that scorns, or that deteststial scenes able apostasy that burns, or otherwise destroys the book of God. If we would then extravagant young travelers, popped chamhagnitudes, bodies is to of knowledge of kno the galling fetters of an imbruting super- her father, who, having fortunately guessed umph, in many places, his surpassed all exstition, we must not only spread the ample toward the sun at the s mind, but we must likewise imbue the unoments delay day or night; truth. But man's relation reach beyond at were to take parsage for the stove, and withal quite at home. On ers." Our little city of Ann Arbor elect- already transcended the bounds of a "newsthe affectionate parent beholding his gen-demandy daughter thus metamorphosed, he was at loss to express himself, but finally managed to exclaim, 'Is that you, Lou- of Eaton county-the victory was still isa?' to which the gallant runaway respond- greater. But I cannot stop to specify: sufed, This is me, tather. Oh, I'm sorry I fice it to say, that in her strongest holds It is needless to say they returned together. our victory has not been complete, through. The people of Covington have, with the out the entire state, the results are highly subscription of the corporation' taken $175, A NIGGER FOR MAYOR.—The Know Noth-

For the Democrat, as he affirms, with almost mathematical certainty, on 8,000 majority in this state

It is a truism that it is chiefly through ranks they had ever before honored: but

But valuable and important as is this fac- ed the "war of the frogs," he was croaked example, and the result was a sweeping

This gentlemaa, however, with his usual light, since the famous "Barricade Clubs"

The "Airian Evening Expesitor," oncof the 'ending organs of that party, has utterly refused is support to Fillmore; and many other papers, I might mention, have done the same. What says the Sc iptural adage? "A house divided against i.-

How eminently gratifying it is to one, Americans are no less truly called a when he looks around upon the contentions "progressive people," than they are a of sectional partisans, to feel that there is information with respect to every man, as a voter, shares in the respon- The steam Ships, rail Trains, Telegraphs, "newspaper-reading people:"-the one, in one true national party-one, which is f Creation. A few simple ele- sibility of giving direction to the govern- Productive Farms, gorgeous Cities, will fact, necessarily implies the other-both bounded by no geographical lines, or paralrious degrees and words of ment; and any citizen may himself fill the soon pass away to the ownership and man- bring the legitimate offspring of liberal in- lels of latitude, but which is indigenous n compose the immense diver- highest stations as a legislator or adminis- agement of those who now look up for di-> ter throw off the talismanic influence which faithfally echo the noble metto it has adoptas man to become a noble freeman, in its joy herself among its pleasant towns and The first fact, which impresses i self up- ed, i cannot fail to be interesting to every

Truly Yours,

000 of the stock, and only seed 5125,000